

Used Clothing Shed Comes to Brewerton

The Brewerton United Methodist Church parking lot is one of the latest drop-off sites for useable clothing items. Brewerton residents are welcome to drop clothing donations off at the shed any day, anytime, 24-7! The drop off shed is located at the Brewerton United Methodist Church parking lot located at 5395 Orangeport Road. Enter the parking lot from Woodlawn Drive.

Acceptable donations include: usable clothes, shoes and sneakers, purses, belts, blankets, draperies, linens, pillowcases and stuffed animals. A Rochester based firm, St. Pauly Textile, Inc., placed the shed at the church to help provide a location for donations that are distributed to the needy in the U.S. and worldwide. The donations are picked up and bundled in their Rochester warehouse, where they are shipped to several relief organizations in more than 40 countries. In 2009, more than 44.25 million garments were distributed to an estimated 5.5 million people here and abroad.

Tax deductible receipts are available each time you donate. It's very easy...just place your clothing, etc. items in a plastic bag and tie it. Drop the bag(s) in the slot located on the front of the shed, take a receipt and you can take pride in the fact that you have done something to help people in need.
